10 March 2015

Dear Parents

This Friday 13 March is Comic Relief Day. To raise money for this worthwhile cause there will be a non-uniform day with a suggested £1 donation. Non-uniform days are always a chance for students to show their individuality but we would ask that they are still dressed appropriately for a school environment. If students have PE they will still be expected to bring their kit and wear PE uniform for their lesson.

Red Noses are on sale at break time this week which cost £1 so if a student is wearing their Red Nose on Friday they will not be expected to make the non-uniform contribution as well.

Lessons will continue as normal with any activities being held at break or lunch times. There will be various activities on at break time run by the Student Council. E.g. blindfolded penalty shoot-out, raffle, cake sale, challenge the teacher table tennis.

We raised over £800 for Children in Need in November 2014 so let's see if we can beat that target.

Thank you for your support.
Yours sincerely
