WHAT IS EID-UL-ADHA

- Eid-ul-Adha is the celebration of sacrifice and marks the end of Hajj, the annual pilgrimage to Mecca.
- This celebration is to remember Prophet Ibrahim who was very obedient to God and was ready to sacrifice his most precious possession when he was asked to sacrifice everything for Allah, including the life of his son Ishmael. Ibrahim was very patient and in constant search for truth.
- Muslims all over the world reflect on these qualities in their lives at this time of the year.

WHY DO MUSLIMS SACRIFICE AN ANIMAL ON THIS DAY?

- During the celebration of Eid al-Adha, Muslims commemorate and remember Ibrahim's trials, by themselves slaughtering an animal such as a sheep, camel, or goat. This action is very often misunderstood by those outside the faith.
- Allah (God) has given Muslims the power over animals and allowed them to eat meat, but only if they pronounce His name at the solemn act of taking life. Muslims slaughter animals in the same way throughout the year. By saying the name of Allah at the time of slaughter, they are reminded that life is sacred.
- The meat from the sacrifice of Eid al-Adha is mostly given away to others. One-third is eaten by immediate family and relatives, one-third is given away to friends, and one-third is donated to the poor. The act symbolizes their willingness to give up things that are of benefit to them or close to their hearts, in order to follow Allah's commands. It also symbolizes their willingness to give up some of their own bounties, in order to strengthen ties of friendship and help those who are in need. They recognize that all blessings come from Allah, and they should open their hearts and share with others.

what do muslims do to celebrate the Holiday?

On the first morning of Eid al-Adha, Muslims around the world attend morning prayers at their local mosques.

- •Prayers are followed by visits with family and friends, and the exchange of greetings and gifts. At some point, members of the family will visit a local farm or otherwise will make arrangements for the slaughter of an animal.
- •The meat is distributed during the days of the holiday or shortly thereafter.
